

ANY MAN TO ANY MAN

By GERALD STANLEY LEE

I DO not know how other men feel about it, but I find it hard, with all that is happening to the world today, to look a small boy in the face.

When a small boy looks trustingly up to me and I see his world—the world he thinks he is going to have, in his eyes, I am afraid.

The look in his eyes of the world he thinks he is going to have cuts me to the quick.

I have always felt I had an understanding with a small boy before.

But the last four years when he looks at me in that old way and I think of his world—the one I see in his eyes—the one I had myself—the one every small boy has a right to, I see suddenly instead the one that is being left over for him by me, by all of us, the one he will have to try to put up with, have to live in, have to be a man in, when you and I have stopped trying.

Then when I face the small boy I want to go off in a wide high place alone and think and ask God. I want to go down into the city and fight—fight with my money and with my hope, go over the top with my religion and then come back and face the small boy.

There are days during this struggle when my soul is spent and all the world seems made of iron and glass and all these crowds of people flocking through the streets who do not seem to care.

It seems as if I would not turn over my head to save a world to live in myself. . . . It does not matter about me—and some days the people I see go by almost make me think it does not matter about them. . . .

Then suddenly I go by troops of school children at four o'clock pouring out into the streets, . . . pouring like fire, pouring like sunshine out into the streets!

It is as the roll of drums for the Liberty Loan!

I want to ring great church bells to call people to the Red Cross!

My rule for a man's finding out just how much he should subscribe to the Red Cross is this:

Put down your name and address on the blank and leave the amount open to think. Then try going past a schoolhouse about four o'clock when the children are pouring out.

Or in the evening when the house is quiet, put down your name and the best figure you dare on the white paper.

Then go upstairs a minute and look in the crib.

Then look at your blank when you come down once more.

A MESSAGE FROM EDWARD N. HURLEY,

Chairman of the United States Shipping Board.

EVERY dollar that has been appropriated by the American Red Cross in this war has welded closer that relationship between the United States and the nations of the Entente, a relationship that will have a marked effect upon the peace council that is coming.

If this work of spreading the gospel of mercy is to continue, every man, woman and child in this republic must give the American Red Cross his fullest support in its second campaign for $100,000,000.

Our boys in Europe are looking to us to back them up and I know of no better means of supporting them than through the instrumentality of the American Red Cross.

The good it has already accomplished and the comforts and welfare it will provide later when the stress of war becomes greater for the United States forces, make it imperative that the second fund of $100,000,000 be a spontaneous gift on the part of the American people.

THE WAR'S RECOMPENSE

The original of this verse was found on an American soldier who bravely fought and as nobly died. The man is yet unknown.

Ye who have faith to look with fearless eyes
Beyond the tragedy of a world at strife,
And know that out of death and night shall rise
The dawn of ampler life.

Rejoice, whatever anguish rend the heart,
That God has given you a priceless dower,
To live in these great times and have your part
In freedom's crowning hour.

That ye may tell your sons who see the light
High in the heavens—their heritage to take—
"I saw the powers of darkness put to flight,
I saw the morning break."

Articles of Incorporation OF

The Inavale Independent Telephone Company

Know all men by these presents—

That we, the undersigned, have associated ourselves together for the purpose of forming and becoming a corporation under the laws of the State of Nebraska, and for that purpose do hereby adopt these articles of incorporation.

I. The name of this Company shall be, "The Inavale Independent Telephone Company."

II. The principal place of transacting the business of this corporation shall be Inavale, Nebraska.

III. The general nature of the business to be transacted by this corporation shall be the constructing, buying, owning, leasing, acquiring, operating and selling telegraph and telephone line or lines, and their interest in the central office in the city of Inavale, Nebraska, and the surrounding country, and other places in the State of Nebraska and adjoining states, the making of exchange and exchange agreements with other lines or companies, and in general to carry on for hire the business of transmission of news and messages, local and long distance, for its members, patrons and the public in general, and to acquire, hold and dispose of such property, real or personal, as may be deemed expedient in the conduct of the business.

IV. The amount of capital stock of this corporation shall be the sum of $10,000.00, divided in shares of $10.00 each to be issued one share to each signer of the preliminary corporation agreement for each phone share now held by them respectively in the original association known as the Inavale Independent Telephone Company, and the remaining portion to be treasury stock, to be disposed of for the benefit of the Company, as the Directors may determine; and each share when issued shall entitle the owner to one vote at all stock holders' meetings; said stock shall be fully paid up when issued, and shall be non-assessable except as may be voted by a majority of the stock present and entitled to vote. The stock shall be transferable only on the books of the Company, and no Real Estate Franchise, or material portion of personal property, of the Company, needed for the transaction of its business, shall be sold, leased or transferred, except by the consent of three-fourths of the stockholders of stock issued and outstanding, which consent may be given at any stockholders meeting, or in writing and for which both the votes and written consent of stockholders not voting may be counted. No stockholder shall hold in any way to exceed five shares.

V. The time of the commencement of this corporation shall be on the First day of January, 1918, and it shall continue during the period of fifty years.

VI. The highest amount of indebtedness to which this corporation shall at any time subject itself shall not be more than $4000.00.

VII. The business of said corporation shall be conducted by a board of directors, not to exceed seven in number, who shall be elected annually by and from the stock holders; such election to take place at such time and to be conducted in such manner as shall be prescribed by the by-laws.

VIII. The officers of said corporation shall be a president, secretary and treasurer, to be chosen from and by the directors and shall hold their office for one year and until their successors are elected and qualified.

IX. The board of directors shall provide a corporate seal on which shall be engraved the name of the Company and date of incorporation, with which all instruments of the Company shall be authenticated.

X. There shall be held at the principal place of business of the Company, annually, on the Second Tuesday of January of each year a meeting of the stockholders of the Company, and the manner of conducting the same, the election of officers, and the method of conducting the business of the corporation shall be as provided by the by-laws adopted by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the stockholders may be called when deemed necessary by order of the Board of Directors, and notice thereof shall be by the secretary mailing a written notice to each stockholder at least seven days before said meeting is to be held.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands this 14th day of January, 1918.

A Brassiere will Complete Your Corset

The contour from shoulder to knee is important. There should be no break, but an easy sweep of line over the top of the corset straight down the hips.

Warners Gilt-Edge Brassieres insure this sweep of line and "blot out" the break one otherwise would find.

They are well-made, prettily designed and trimmed, and as strongly guaranteed as the celebrated Warner's Rustproof Corsets.

THE NATIONAL PARKS OPEN SEASON OF 1918

Special Summer Tourist rates to all the Parks will soon be announced. All facilities for the Summer volume of travel will be ample and as comfortable as usual.

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK is open from June 25th to September 15th; circuit tours embrace all gateways, including the Cody scenic entrance and the Burlington's triangle circuit mountain tour from Eastern Nebraska via Denver in one direction, through Yellowstone or Glacier National Parks, with Rocky Mountain National-Estes Park en-route—three Parks on one grand circuit.

GLACIER NATIONAL PARK is open from June 15th to September 15th. The same general variety of Burlington circuit routes may be used that include the entire east slope of the Rockies from the British boundary to Colorado.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN ESTES PARK is open from May 1st to November 1st. No National Park has, in the past two years, enjoyed such a wonderful increase of patronage as this Park, located just north of Denver on the Burlington's Denver-Casper-Yellowstone-Glacier line.

Ask the undersigned for Summer fare, publications; let him describe the circuit routes available that will permit you to make a most comprehensive scenic Rocky Mountain tour during the 1918 season.

When the Firemen Appear

the insured man's first thought is one of thankfulness that he is so. How about your thoughts if a fireman should appear at your home?

The Day Before the Fire is the day to insure. As that day may be to-morrow for all you can know or do, it follows that prudence would impell you to stop in our office to-day and have us issue you a policy.
